Kevin Kane
Memphis Convention & Visitors Bureau President & CEO
Biography

As President and CEO of the Memphis Convention & Visitors Bureau, Kevin Kane has often been described as the face and voice of Memphis tourism.

His mission is a dual one: 1) on a local level, to create an understanding of the value of hospitality and tourism and 2) on a national and international level, to communicate a brand for the Memphis destination, a brand which promises a unique music heritage and great entertainment.

Kevin Kane directs a 501c-6 non-profit organization that is the official destination marketing organization of Memphis and Shelby County. He leads a staff of 30 and a membership of more than 500 hospitality-related businesses. The CVB also has representatives in London, Germany, Washington, DC, and Chicago. The agency functions as a catalyst for the growth of the local hospitality industry and advocates widespread support among Memphis and Shelby County citizens, businesses, lawmakers, and elected officials.

Before joining the CVB, Mr. Kane was director of worldwide sales for Holiday Inns, Inc., then based in Memphis. He directed the development and expansion of worldwide sales strategies in North America for the hotel chain.

Mr. Kane has used his own background in international sales and marketing to establish an international awareness of Memphis. He uses strong professional relationships to push Memphis to the forefront of travel destinations. Special appearances by Memphis icons frequently accompany a vigorous sales pitch at major travel events. Through his own relentless enthusiasm, Mr. Kane has become the most sought-after spokesperson for Memphis entertainment and amenities.

After joining the CVB in 1991, Mr. Kane proceeded to strengthen its position as the lead tourism agency. He secured a permanent address, at 47 Union Avenue, for CVB offices. He opened new visitor centers to offer personal assistance to visitors and to showcase the destination: The Tennessee Welcome Center/Memphis Visitors Center on Riverside Drive in the mid 1990s, the Memphis and Shelby County Visitors Center on Airline Road in 2003, and the Memphis Visitors Center at Elvis Presley Boulevard and Brooks Road in 2005.

Under his direction, in the mid nineties, Mr. Kane transitioned the CVB marketing theme to "Memphis -- Home of the Blues, Birthplace of Rock 'n' Roll," which was the beginning of Memphis' music brand and was inspiration for several successful advertising campaign and promotions, including the "50 Years of Rock 'N' Roll" in 2004, and the "50 Years of Soul" in 2007.

Revised, April 2009

Additional accomplishments and milestones include:

- He opened sales offices in Washington DC and Chicago, London and Germany.
- Spearheaded the Memphis response to the Hurricane Katrina evacuees
- Established the Memphis Sports Development Council and the Memphis Tourism Education Foundation, both 501 c-3 subsidiaries of the CVB
- As a volunteer, directed the rebuilding of the Blues Foundation and kept this prestigious international organization in Memphis
- As a volunteer, co-founded the Bridges Kick Off Classic high school football competition

Mr. Kane is a native of Memphis, Tennessee and a graduate of Christian Brothers High School and the University of Memphis. He is an avid sports enthusiast, tennis player and golfer. He is the proud father of three.
